Girl's Basketball Camp

About the Coach

COACH LINDWALL

Coach Lindwall is entering his 12th season as Head Coach of the St Joseph High School Girl's Basketball program. Coach Lindwall became the Head Coach at St Joseph after coaching stops at Joel Barlow High School from 1990-1998 compiling a record of 137-58 including a State Championship in 1995 and a SWC League Championship in 1998. After coaching at Joel Barlow for 9 seasons Coach Lindwall in 1998 accepted a position as a Division 1 Women's Basketball Assistant at Fairfield University. He coached at Fairfield University for 7 years through the 2005 season with great success including participating in the NCAA Tournament 2 times and the WNIT Tournament 2 times. Coach Lindwall left Coaching in 2005 to pursue other challenges and to spend time with his family until 2011 when he accepted the Head Coach Position at St Joseph High School. Coach Lindwall has compiled a record of 156-86 in 11 seasons at St Joseph. In 2015 the team was crowned Connecticut Class M State Champions. In 2022, the team just won the FCIAC Championship!

This year Coach Lindwall has continued his Girl's Basketball AAU program called the Connecticut Hoopsters. In it's 8th year of existence it consists of 9 teams ranging from 6th grade to 11th grade. All of the teams are coached by High School and former College Coaches.

Coach Lindwall brings over 28 years of Coaching and Basketball Camp experience to this year's Camp. He continues to assist in the growth of Girl's Basketball in the area and the teaching of the Fundamentals of this great game we call – Basketball.
